ON THE COVER:

Longtime Pirates broadcaster and 1971 World Series hero Steve Blass announced this past January that he will retire from the broadcast booth at the conclusion of the 2019 season, his 60th season as a member of the Pirates organization.

The 2019 season will mark Blass' 34th as a Pirates color analyst, making him the longest-tenured broadcaster in franchise history.

The highlight of his playing career came during the 1971 Fall Classic against Baltimore. Blass helped lift Pittsburgh to the club's fourth World Series championship after recording two complete games and finishing second in the voting for World Series MVP behind Pirates great Roberto Clemente. He still remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

Blass pitched a total of 10 seasons in the big leagues, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). He was one of the game's most successful pitchers over a five-year stretch from 1968-72 after going 78-44 with 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA, which included a career-best 19 wins in 1972.

FRANK COONELLY

TEAM PRESIDENT

FRANK COONELLY is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the organization. Frank leads the Pirates' senior management team and is accountable for the organization's success on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Pirates on September 13, 2007, Frank served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Labor in the Commissioner's Office where he negotiated and administered collective bargaining agreements with the Major League Baseball Players Association and the World Umpires Association. Frank led a staff of attorneys who represented the Commissioner and the 30 Clubs in the litigation and arbitration of labor matters and provided contract and economic advice to the 30 Clubs.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's Office in 1998, Coonelly practiced labor and employment law as a Partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius. A large part of Frank's practice at Morgan Lewis consisted of the representation of Major League Baseball as outside labor counsel. In that role, Frank assisted the Commissioner in collective bargaining and other litigation matters. He also represented several individual Clubs in salary arbitration matters.

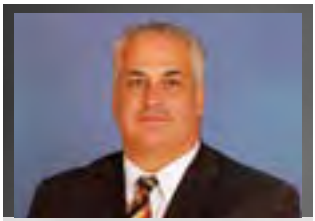

Frank plays catch with a young fan at a Miracle League event.

YOUTH BASEBALL

MIRACLE LEAGUE

The Pirates and the Miracle League believe that every child deserves the chance to play baseball. This shared belief is the reason why supporting Miracle League programs throughout the Pittsburgh region and Bradenton, Florida is an ongoing signature project of Pirates Charities. These unique fields are designed to support children and adults with special needs and open up the game of baseball to anyone who wants to play.

In addition to providing funding for the construction of a number of fields, Pirates Charities contributes to ongoing maintenance projects and provides annual operating support. Pirates Charities also gives kids the chance to learn from their heroes by hosting Miracle League Fantasy Camps, in partnership with Baseball Fantasy Camp for Kids, where kids get baseball tips from celebrity guests such as Pirates players, mascots and alumni.

In 2018, Pirates Charities also partnered with the Miracle League of Moon Township and other area groups to break ground on the new People's Park Miracle League Field, adaptive playground and ADA restroom facility in Moon Township Pa.

RBI

Kids in Pittsburgh and in Bradenton have the opportunity to participate in Major League Baseball's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program thanks to Pirates Charities support. RBI participants receive complimentary coaching and training, as well as baseball and softball equipment and uniforms when needed.

PLAY BALL

Pirates Play Ball (pirates.com/playball) is an online hub that centralizes many resources available to coaches, parents and youth. There, fans can view instructional videos featuring Pirates players, sign up for winter coaching clinics provided by the Pirates and Dick's Sporting Goods, and learn about ongoing instructional opportunities and events.

FIELDS FOR KIDS

Pirates Charities helps to provide safe places to play ball through the team's signature program "Fields for Kids," with funding support from the Grable Foundation. Since the Fields for Kids program's inception in 2009, 326 individual grants have been distributed in the greater Pittsburgh region, in addition to 44 grants in the Pirates Spring Training Home of Bradenton, Florida.
In 2018, 34 individual youth baseball and softball associations serving over 9,100 youth, received matching grants. Included in that was a $25,000 grant to the New Castle Area School District to help with the completion of The Rack, a 20,000 square foot indoor training facility open free to all district students.

EDUCATION

ACTION MATH BASEBALL

Action Math Baseball is a baseball-themed math curriculum suitable for in-school and after-school programs. Supported by Neal and Becca Huntington, Action Math uses baseball statistics to teach math concepts. Beginning with a teacher training in January, the program culminated in a Pittsburgh Regional World Series at PNC Park's Hall of Fame Club in April. More than 2,100 kids from 23 different schools across the region competed at the 2018 Tournament.

MILITARY

MILITARY THURSDAYS

Each Thursday home game at PNC Park was designated a Military Thursday in 2018. Pirates players wore camouflage jerseys to honor our service men and women, and Pirates Charities selected a different nonprofit organization to recognize each game that serves veterans and members of our military. The honoree nonprofit was recognized on the field prior to the game, hosted in the Pirates Charities Suite, and given the proceeds of the day's 50/50 raffle to help continue their important work. In addition to Military Thursdays, military and veterans' groups were able to receive complimentary tickets through the Pirates Community Ticket Program.

CANCER

PIRATES CHARITIES NIGHT ON AT&T SPORTSNET

Every year the Pirates host "Cancer Support Night" to raise awareness about the many types of cancers that affect our community. In August 2018, Pirates Charities joined with 11 local non-profit groups assisting those impacted by cancer, to celebrate survivors, support those going through treatments and remembering loved ones lost. Pirates fans participated in a number of fundraising initiatives throughout the night and everyone in attendance joined together in the seventh inning stretch by holding up signs to "Stand Up for Cancer" in the name of loved ones they support.

In September, the Pirates hosted the third annual Childhood Cancer Awareness night as 22 young superheroes battling cancer received a night to remember. Pirates Charities hosted the group at PNC Park for a celebrity head shaving event, in partnership with St. Baldrick's Foundation, an on-field superhero caping ceremony, and the VIP treatment in PNC Park's World Series Suites.

FUNDRAISING

OUR TEAM

TEAM EVENTS

GOLF AND CLAYS

Pirates players and coaches help raise funds for Pirates Charities by donating their time to spend with Pirates Charities donors and sponsors at a number of events. Pirates Charites hosts two golf outings annually — the first in Bradenton, Florida during Spring Training, and the second during the Pirates season in Pittsburgh. Last year, the Pittsburgh event took place at Fox Chapel Golf Club, was presented by Allegheny Health Network and co-chaired by Pirates President Frank Coonelly and Dr. Patrick DeMeo, Professor and Chair, Department of Orthopedic Surgery, Allegheny Health Network.

Players, coaches, alumni and broadcasters also participated in the annual Pirates Charities Sporting Clays Invitational at Seven Springs Mountain Resort on August 23, mingling with participants and enjoying a top-notch shooting course hosted by award-winning instructor Michael Mohr.

FAITH NIGHT

Faith Night, presented by Chick-fil-A, was held on July 27 after the Pirates took on the New York Mets at PNC Park. Players, coaches and their wives and girlfriends took the field after the game in front of over 5,000 fans who stayed to hear personal stories of faith from the team. Pirates Chaplain Brad Henderson hosted the event that featured Manager Clint Hurdle as well as many Pirates players and coaches.

PIRATES COMMUNITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM (PCCP)

PCCP is an organization-wide community service initiative for Pirates minor league players that promotes volunteerism and awareness, and provides benefit to the community, the individual player and the Pirates organization.

Near the conclusion of each minor league team's regular season, each of the affiliates selects one player from their organization to receive the "Pirates Community Commitment Award." Honorees travel to Pittsburgh, where they are recognized in a special pregame, on-field ceremony and then watch the game from one of PNC Park's luxury suites. Together, Pirates minor leaguers completed more than 3,000 service hours in this 11th year of the program.

CARE-A-VAN

Leading up to PiratesFest, the 2019 Pirates Charities CARE-a-van made nearly 30 stops in 11 cities over three days to visit local nonprofit organizations. CARE-a-van events included a meal delivery to all six Pittsburgh Police Zone Stations as well as City of Police headquarters and the Police Academy; visits to schools, Boys & Girls Clubs and several non-profit, community-based organizations.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

HERITAGE CELEBRATIONS

ANNUAL HERITAGE LUNCHEON

As part of the Pirates annual African American Heritage Celebration, the Pirates hosted a special panel presentation in the PNC Park Press Conference Room for 200 youth from Penn State Center's C.I.T.Y., Urban League of Greater Pittsburgh, and the Pittsburgh Urban BASEball Classic to engage with internal talent from every level of the Pirates organization.

Following the event, the Pirates and Milwaukee Brewers wore Negro League jerseys — those of the Pittsburgh Crawfords and Milwaukee Bears respectively — for that night's game. Pregame and in-game features also celebrated African-American baseball past, present, and future.

"LONG LIVE THEIR LEGACY"

The "Long Live Their Legacy" program is a Pirates community relations initiative promoting the history of the Negro Leagues and its many stars. The program is a traveling presentation made available to Pittsburgh area schools and community groups throughout February as part of Black History Month.

The "Long Live Their Legacy" initiative is designed to help educate young people in surrounding communities about Negro League baseball, its ties to Pittsburgh, and the significant influence it has had-and still has-on the game of baseball. The roughly 60-minute presentation aims to create an awareness of Pittsburgh as a hub for Negro League baseball during the first half of the 20th century, and the fact it was the only city in the country to host two Negro League teams-the Homestead Grays and Pittsburgh Crawfords.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

DENTAL AND VISION SCREENINGS

Pirates Charities partnered with TeamSmile, Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield, Allegheny Health Network, United Concordia, and local dentist Dr. Joey Troupe to host free dental and vision screenings for more than 250 local children through Tickets for Kids Charities. Dental professionals were on-site to provide dental treatment and emphasize the importance of proper dental hygiene. Children also had their vision tested, and those in need of eyeglasses received a voucher for a free pair.

SPRING TRAINING

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

In addition to ongoing partnerships with the Manatee Education Foundation (MEF) throughout the year, Pirates Charities joined forces with MEF and The Mosaic Company during Spring Training to adopt five schools, providing needed supplies and educational materials to help students achieve their goals. Pirates players and staff visited several of the benefitting schools, treating students to lunch, and delivering supplies and gifts in person.

DOMINICAN OUTREACH

LATIN AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS

Estorga, Dominican Republic is home to the Pittsburgh Pirates Latin American Headquarters. Through our players and staff there, the ballclub works to make a positive difference in the nearby community that has welcomed us so warmly. Each year, the team hosts a group of local children to a holiday party at the baseball facility. Kids are treated to a picnic, receive Pirates gifts and get to play ball with the pros.

The Pirates also provide educational opportunities for our Dominican players. In the Dominican Republic, many are unable to finish traditional schooling, some dropping out as early as 3rd grade due to a lack of federal regulations for schooling. The Pirates provide individualized education programs for players at our Latin American Headquarters, and in 2017, nine players received a Dominican High School Diploma at the eighth consecutive High School Graduation at the Academy.

MLB INITIATIVES

LITTLE LEAGUE CLASSIC

The first MLB Little League Classic featured the Pittsburgh Pirates as the home team versus the visiting St. Louis Cardinals at a renovated BB&T Ballpark at historic Bowman Field in Williamsport, PA. To foster interest and encourage participation in youth-centered baseball and softball activities, the major league players attended Little League World Series games earlier in the day before playing their game in front of a crowd of 2,596, mostly made up of Little League players and their families. Clint Hurdle said about the experience, "it was one of the highlights of my career."

In 2019, the Pirates will return to Williamsport on August 18, for another great day before they take on the Chicago Cubs in the third annual Little League Classic Game at Bowman Field.

CLEMENTE DAY

Each September, the Pirates join with the rest of Major League Baseball to celebrate the life a legacy of Roberto Clemente as we celebrate Roberto Clemente Day. The Pirates use this day to take part in community events throughout the Pittsburgh area to spend time with community members and give back in a tangible way

In 2018, the Pirates and Pirates Charities celebrated the annual Roberto Clemente Day with a 2018 Clemente Day CARE-a-van, traveling around Pittsburgh to schools and community centers with Pirates players, coaches, front office executives, alumni, and players' wives. We started the day with a Miracle League Fantasy Camp at PNC Park, visited the Allegheny Intermediate Unit Latino Family Center, Brashear High School, the Southwestern Veterans Center, and Conroy Education Center for tons of fun activities with community members.

JACKIE ROBINSON DAY

The Jackie Robinson MLB & Scholastic Breaking Barriers Essay Contest gave students in grades 4 through 9 the opportunity to submit an essay about barriers or obstacles they have faced, or are currently facing in their lives, and how they used the values exemplified by Jackie Robinson (citizenship, commitment, courage, determination, excellence, integrity, justice, persistence and teamwork) to deal with those challenges. In 2018, the Pirates hosted students from Albert Gallatin North Middle School's seventh grade class to congratulate them on submitting the most Breaking Barriers essay entries in our region. More than 120 essays were submitted from the school. The greater Pittsburgh region had 31 schools and over 800 students participate in this national program.

MANAGER & COACHES

CLINT HURDLE

MANAGER • #13

AGE: 61 (turns 62 on July 30)
BORN: 7/30/57 in Big Rapids, MI
RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA
APPOINTED: 11/15/10
POSITION PLAYED: OF
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2021

CLINT HURDLE was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on November 15, 2010, thus becoming the 39th manager in the organization's history. The 2019 season marks his 45th overall in professional baseball.

In his eight seasons as Pittsburgh's manager, Hurdle has posted a 666-628-1 record. His 666 managerial victories in a Pirates uniform rank fifth on the club's all-time list; he enters the 2019 season 45 victories behind Chuck Tanner, who is fourth on the list with 711 wins.

Hurdle picked up his 1200th career managerial win in the final game of the 2018 season; a 6-5 victory over the Reds in Cincinnati. He entered the 2019 season ranked third in career wins among active managers, trailing only Bruce Bochy (1926) and Terry Francona (1574).

During his time with the Pirates, Hurdle led the club to the postseason in three consecutive seasons (2013-2015), joining Fred Clarke (1901-1903) and Jim Leyland (1990-1992) as the only managers to do so.

Hurdle was named the 2013 National League Manager-of-the-Year by the BBWAA after leading the Pirates to a 94-68 record and their first postseason berth since 1992. He received 25 first-place votes and was listed second on the other five ballots, as well as being the only manager in either league named on all 30 ballots. Hurdle was just the second Pittsburgh manager to win the award, joining Jim Leyland, who won in 1990 and 1992.

For his efforts in 2014, Hurdle finished second in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year behind Washington manager Matt Williams. He finished fourth in the voting in 2015. Clint was also a member of Mike Matheny's coaching staff at the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota.

Hurdle also captured Manager-of-the-Year honors from The Sporting News in 2013, joining Billy Meyer (1948), Danny Murtaugh (1960, 1970) and Jim Leyland (1988, 1990, 1992) as past winners in club history.

Hurdle spent 2010 as the Hitting Coach of the A.L. champion Texas Rangers, a club that led the Majors with a .276 average during the regular season - paced by A.L. MVP Josh Hamilton (.359, 32 homers and 100 RBI) and Vladimir Guerrero (.300, 29 homers and 115 RBI).

Prior to joining the Texas staff on November 5, 2009, Hurdle spent over 15 years in the Colorado organization, serving as a minor league hitting coordinator, Major League hitting coach and manager at the big league level. He compiled a 534-625 record while serving the Rockies as manager from April 26, 2002, until he was relieved of his duties on May 29, 2009. Clint has the most wins of any manager in Colorado team history, winning his 500th career game on August 29, 2008.

In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured its first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club, which won 11 straight games in September, won 21 of its 22 games leading up to the World Series, where Boston pulled off a four-game sweep. During the 2007 post season, the Rockies swept the Phillies in the Division Series and Arizona in the Championship Series before falling to the Red Sox in the Fall Classic.

For his efforts in 2007, Hurdle received four first-place votes and finished third in the voting for N.L. Manager-of-the-Year. Clint also served as manager of the National League in the 2008 All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium, the longest game (time, innings) in All-Star history (the N.L. lost 4-3 in 15 innings in a game that lasted 4:50), and was a coach for the N.L. staff during the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston.

Hurdle's managerial career at the big league level began with a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field on April 26, 2002. He replaced Buddy Bell as Colorado's skipper that day and went 6-0 in his first six games - tied for the sixth-best winning streak by a manager following a mid-season managerial change in Major League history (Joe Morgan holds the record as his Red Sox won their first 12 games in 1988).

In his five-plus years tutoring Colorado's hitters, the club compiled the N.L.'s top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000). In 2001 alone, the Rockies established a National League record for total bases (2,748) and the N.L. mark for extra-base hits (598). Hurdle, who doubled as the club's First Base Coach from 1997-98, remained on the staff under three different Colorado managers; Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming Hitting Coach in 1997, Clint served the Rockies as their minor league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Before he joined the Colorado organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six years (1988-1993) and compiled a 412-418 record. In his first season as a manager, and in St. Lucie's first year of existence, he led the club to a second-half division title and the Florida State League championship. Hurdle also took his 1989 St. Lucie club and the 1990 Jackson team to the post season, losing in the first round of the playoffs each year. After managing Williamsport in the Eastern League in 1991, Clint wrapped up his minor league managerial career with two seasons at the Triple-A level with Tidewater in 1992 and Norfolk in 1993.

Primarily an outfielder during his playing days, Hurdle was selected by Kansas City in the first round (9th player overall) of the 1975 June draft. After three full seasons in the minor leagues, which included American Association Rookie-of-the-Year and All-Star Game MVP honors while playing with Omaha in 1977, Clint made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977, and hit a two-run homer off Seattle's Glenn Abbott in his second at bat.

Hurdle made his Major League debut at the age of 20 with the Royals on September 18, 1977.

Hurdle played parts of 10 seasons in the Majors with the Royals (1977-1981), Reds (1982), Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and Cardinals (1986) and compiled a .259 average, 81 doubles, 12 triples, 32 home runs and 193 RBI in 515 games. He appeared in the post season twice with Kansas City, going 3-for-8 with an RBI in four games against the Yankees in the 1978 A.L.C.S., and advancing as far as the World Series in 1980, only to lose in four games to the Phillies.

After spending the 1982 season in the Cincinnati organization, Hurdle was signed by New York as a minor league free agent prior to the 1983 campaign and played three years in the Mets system before being selected by St. Louis in the 1985 Rule 5 Draft. In his final season as a player (1987), Clint appeared in 97 games with Triple-A Tidewater and went 1-for-3 in three games with the Mets. In his big league career, he made 240 appearances in right field, 96 in left field, 92 at first base, 22 at catcher and 15 at third base. Hurdle, who hit the final home run in Minnesota's historical Metropolitan Stadium on 9/30/81, hit his final big league homer on 9/9/86 at Three Rivers Stadium - a solo shot off Pittsburgh's Rick Reuschel.

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 24 times by 21 different Pittsburgh players. # JOEY CORA

THIRD BASE COACH • #28

AGE: 54 (turns 55 on May 14)
BORN: 5/14/64 in Caguas, Puerto Rico
RESIDES: Mirimar, FL
APPOINTED: 10/29/16
POSITION PLAYED: INF
CONTRACT: Signed thru 2019

JOEY CORA is in his third season as Pittsburgh's Third Base Coach, having been named to the position on October 29, 2016.

In addition to his role as the Third Base Coach, Cora serves as the club's Infield Coach.

Cora served as Manager for the Altoona Curve in 2016, the Pirates Double-A affiliate in the Eastern League, and led the club to a 76-64 regular season record and a wild card berth. Altoona took over first place in the Western Division for the first time on June 26, and held that spot for 55-of-63 games until Akron took it over on the next-to-last day of the season.

A native of Caguas, Puerto Rico, Cora was a first-round pick of the San Diego Padres in 1985 - the 23rd overall pick in the First-Year Player Draft that year.

After making his professional debut with Spokane in 1985 and finishing eighth in the Northwest League batting race that season (.324), Joey made his Major League debut with San Diego at the age of 21 on 4/6/87.

The Opening Day second baseman for the Padres in 1987, Cora singled off San Francisco's Mike Krukow for his first big league hit in his fourth at bat.

After playing parts of three seasons with San Diego (1987, 1989-90), Cora spent the next four years playing for the White Sox, where he connected off Mike Moore for his first Major League home run on 6/2/93 at Detroit. Joey also played in 153 games with Chicago in 1993 while also ranking second in the league with 13 triples that season (his teammated Lance Johnson had 14).

Cora was selected to the American League All-Star team while playing with Seattle in 1997, a season in which he set career highs in doubles (40), home runs (11), RBI (54) and runs scored (105) while playing in 149 games.

The switch-hitting infielder produced a 24-game hitting streak with the Mariners during the 1997 campaign between 5/2-29, the third-longest hitting streak in Seattle team history and the third-longest ever by an American League switch hitter.

Cora spent a total of 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, playing in a career-high 155 games with the Mariners and Indians during his final campaign in 1998. He batted .277 (1035-for-3734) with 171 doubles, 41 triples, 30 home runs, 294 RBI, 624 runs and 117 stolen bases in 1119 career games, recording his 1000th big league hit on 8/21/98.

Joey was an All-Star while playing with Seattle in 1997.

In addition to his regular season games, Cora appeared in the postseason with the White Sox (1993), Mariners (1995 and 1997) and Indians (1998). He homered off New York's David Cone in the fifth and deciding game of the 1995 Division Series, giving Seattle a 1-0 lead in the third inning. Joey also scored one of the two runs in the 11th inning as the Mariners walked off the Yankees on Edgar Martinez' double off Jack McDowell.

Cora began his coaching career in 2000 with the Florida State League champion Daytona Cubs. He served as a minor league manager in the New York Mets system for two years, with the Rookie-level Appalachian League Kingsport Mets in 2001 and 2002, and also managed the Montreal Expos' Single-A affiliate in the South Atlantic League, the Savannah Sand Gnats, in 2003.

In addition to his minor league coaching career, Cora was a member of the Major League staff of the Chicago White Sox for eight years under manager Ozzie Guillen from 2004-2011. He was Chicago's Third Base Coach for three years (2004-2006) before spending the final five years as the Bench Coach. Cora also joined Guillen in 2012 and served as the Bench Coach and Infield Instructor for the Miami Marlins.

Prince spent the 2016 season as the Pirates Minor League Field Coordinator after managing the Altoona Curve to a 74-68 record and a post-season appearance in 2015 - his 11th season as a minor league manager.

In 2014, Tom guided Bradenton to a second-half division title and an overall record of 78-61 while being recognized as one of the top managers in the Florida State League.

In 519 career big league games, Prince compiled a .208 batting average (248-for-1190), 24 home runs and 140 RBI. He retired as a player in 2003 after going 8-for-40 (.200) with two homers and six RBI in 24 games with the Twins and 2-for-8 in eight games with the Royals.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season.

Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.

2018 PIRATES MINOR LEAGUE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

NEAL HUNTINGTON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

NEAL HUNTINGTON is in his 12th season as the General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was appointed to the position on September 25, 2007, thus becoming the 12th G.M. in the history of the club. In his role as Executive Vice President and General Manager, Neal is responsible for the entire baseball operations department, which includes overseeing the Major League club as well as scouting and player development.

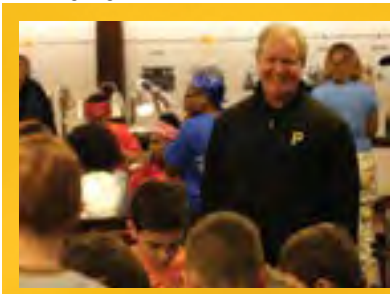

Huntington, who finished second in the voting for MLB Executive-of-the-Year in both 2013 and 2015, is the second-longest tenured General Manager in team history behind Joe L. Brown, who served the Club as its G.M. for a total of 22 years (1956-1976, 1985).

During his tenure, Huntington has overseen the rebuilding and reconfiguration of the Pirates front office, scouting and coaching staffs as well as the retooling of the Pirates 40-man roster and minor league system. Those efforts have played a role in the Pirates posting the fourth-best winning percentage in the National League - and the 10th-best in all of Major League Baseball - over the last eight seasons.

Huntington oversees a talented and dynamic staff which was instrumental in the Pirates being named the 2015 Organization of the Year by Baseball America, the industry's most respected publication. The Pirates were the only team in baseball that produced an aggregate Top 10 farm system ranking from 2013-2018.

With a blend of analytics and traditional baseball thought, Huntington and his staff systematically built a playoff-caliber organization from a humble foundation in 2007. With increased scouting and the acquisition of talent through the draft, international signings, trades, free agency and innovative player development, Huntington constructed a club that won 98 games in 2015 and made the postseason three straight seasons - one of only three MLB teams to do so between 2013-15.

The Pirates have allocated significant resources into the First-Year Player Draft and toward international amateur talent acquisition which has resulted in the Pirates farm system moving from being one of the worst in MLB to among the best in the game, including a No. 1 ranking by Baseball America entering 2014.

Neal watches students compete in the Action Math Baseball World Series

Since the start of the 2011 season, the Pirates have produced the fourth-best record in the National League and the 10th-best in all of Major League Baseball.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Neal worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager for the 2007 American League Central Division champion Cleveland Indians. In his role as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Huntington served as an evaluator and advisor for Cleveland General Manager Mark Shapiro, providing recommendations regarding personnel, strategic planning and decision making. Neal also scouted major and minor league players and provided recommendations with respect to player evaluation, acquisition and retention. He also provided scouting evaluations on players within the Indians organization while doing advance scouting work for a portion of the Indians' opponents.

Huntington began his association with the Indians in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Minor League operations. In November of 1998, Neal took over as Cleveland's Director of Player Development. In that role he instilled a holistic developmental philosophy that focused on the systematic development of the person as well as the player. He also oversaw the Indians player development system, including Latin American Field Operations. After being promoted to the title of Assistant General Manager on November 1, 2001, Huntington assisted Shapiro in all areas of the day-to-day operation of the major league club, concentrating particularly in player evaluation, acquisition and retention.

Neal began his major league career in the Montreal Expos organization on June 1, 1992. He spent the 1994 campaign as the video advance scout for the Expos' Major League club and was then promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development after the 1994 season, where he assisted in all aspects of Montreal's Player Development system.

For his efforts that season, he entered the 2005 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Washington's second-best prospect and as the Nationals' top hitting prospect by USA Today Sports Weekly.

STRONG FINISH: The Bucs produced the fifth-best record (16-10) in the National League during the month of September and the ninth-best in the Major Leagues, dating back to July 8...In that time, only the Athletics (48-25), Red Sox (47-25), Rays (46-28), Rockies (45-29), Astros (43-28), Dodgers (44-31), Cubs (45-32) and Brewers (43-31) posted a better record than the Pirates (42-31).

WANNA BE STARTING SOMETHING: Following the All-Star break, Pittsburgh's starting pitchers posted the eighth-lowest ERA in the Major Leagues (3.48) and tied for third with 26 wins; only the Indians and Mets' starters won more games (30).

POWER PITCHING: Pittsburgh's pitching staff ranked third in the Majors with 16 shutouts, trailing only the Cubs (18) and Indians (17)...Dating back to July, the Pirates posted the second-lowest ERA (3.38) in the Major Leagues behind the Dodgers (3.19)...In his seven seasons as Pittsburgh's Pitching Coach (2011-2018), Ray Searage has guided the Pirates to the sixth-lowest ERA (3.78) in Major League Baseball.

1-2 PUNCH: Trevor Williams (3.11) and Jameson Taillon (3.20) ranked seventh and ninth respectively among the National League leaders in ERA...This marks the first time since 1991 that the Pirates finished the season with two pitchers among the top 10 ERA leaders; Randy Tomlin (2.98) ranked eighth and Doug Drabek (3.07) was tenth that season.

THE DYNAMIC DUO: Jameson Taillon (14-9) and Trevor Williams (14-9) shared the team lead in victories this season...The last time the Pirates had two right-handed pitchers win 14 or more games in the same season was 1978 when Bert Blyleven (14-10) and Don Robinson (14-6) did so...The last season in which two Pittsburgh pitchers won 14 games or more was 1992; righthander Doug Drabek (15-11) and lefthander Randy Tomlin (14-9).

BULLISH PEN: Pittsburgh relief pitchers posted a club-record 584 strikeouts (previous mark was 526 in 2016) and surrendered the fifth-lowest amount of home runs (57) among all Major League teams in 2018...For the first time in club history, the Pirates had two relievers (Felipe Vázquez - 89 and Richard Rodríguez - 88) strike out at least 80 batters in the same season.

THE OUTFIELD: Pittsburgh's outfielders recorded 215 extra base hits, the highest total among N.L. teams in 2018 and the most for the club since 2008 (215)...The 215 extra base hits by the Bucco outfielders were the third-most in all of Major League Baseball this season, trailing only the Red Sox (235) and Blue Jays (222)...In addition, the Pittsburgh outfielders ranked third among all Major League teams with 915 total bases, trailing only the Red Sox (973) and Brewers (925).

THE MEN BEHIND THE MASK: Pittsburgh catchers led all National League teams with a .353 on-base percentage; second only to the White Sox (.354) in MLB...Among all Major League teams, the Bucco backstops ranked second in OPS (.779) and slugging percentage (.426) behind the Dodgers, who produced a .786 OPS and a .438 slugging pct.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION: Francisco Cervelli threw out 21 runners attempting to steal against him, tied with Philadelphia's Jorge Alfaro for the most among National League catchers in 2018...Cervelli threw out a career-high 23 runners in his first season with the Pirates in 2015...Among all Major League teams this season, Pittsburgh finished tied for fourth with 34 caught stealings by its catchers, trailing only Oakland (42), Baltimore (41) and Milwaukee (35).

CAN I ASSIST YOU?: Pittsburgh's 34 outfield assists led all National League teams and trailed only Detroit (35) for the most among all Major League teams...The Bucco outfielders also led the National League in assists as recently as 2016 with 35.

GOLD IN LEFT FIELD: Corey Dickerson won his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award...He ranked first among National League left fielders with a .996 fielding percentage and second among all N.L. outfielders in fielding percentage behind Colorado's Charlie Blackmon (.997), who made one error in 297 chances...Dickerson made one error in 263 total chances and set career highs in assists (seven) and starts (122)...He made his lone error (a throwing miscue) on 8/26 at Milwaukee.

SEIZING THE CENTRAL: The Bucs posted a 43-33 record against teams from the N.L. Central, the only division with four teams to finish with a winning record in 2018...It was the best intra-divisional record among the five teams and Pittsburgh's second winning season against the division since it was formed in 1994; the Pirates went 45-31 against their divisional rivals in 2013.

HURDLE AT THE HELM: On the final day of the 2018 season, Clint Hurdle picked up his 1200th career win as a Major League manager; one of just three active managers (as of 10/18/18) with as many victories...In the eight seasons with Hurdle at the helm (2011-2018), the Pirates have produced the 10th-best winning percentage in MLB (.515) and the 10th-most wins (666).

GIVING THEM THE WILLIES: Trevor Williams finished seventh among the National League leaders with a 3.11 ERA...His 1.38 ERA after the All-Star break was the second-lowest among all Major League starting pitchers behind Tampa Bay's Blake Snell (1.17) and the second-lowest in Pirates history (since 1933) behind Zane Smith's 1.30 mark in 1990...Williams was the only pitcher in Major League Baseball this season to make 10 starts of at least 6.0 innings without allowing a run (Justin Verlander was second with nine) and also became the first pitcher in team history (since 1908) to make 10 starts of at least 6.0 innings without allowing a run.

JAMO: Jameson Taillon posted the fifth-lowest ERA in the Majors Leagues (2.63) from June 1 thru the end of the season and ranked ninth overall among the National League leaders in ERA (3.20)...He was one of only four pitchers in the league to throw two complete games (also Max Scherzer, Mike Foltynewicz and Noah Syndergaard) and led the Pirates in starts (32), innings pitched (191.0) and strikeouts (179)...Taillon allowed three earned runs or less in each of his last 22 starts - one of just two true starting pitchers in MLB in 2018 to make at least 22 straight starts while allowing three earned runs or less; the other being New York's Jacob deGrom, who did so in a Major League record 29 straight.

A STARLING SHINING BRIGHTLY: Starling Marte had a career-high 20 home runs and ranked third in the National League with his 33 stolen bases...Marte is just the third player in team history to produce at least 20 homers and 30 steals in the same season, joining Barry Bonds (1987, 1990-92) and Andy Van Slyke (1987-88)...Marte is also one of only four Pirates all-time with at least five seasons of 40 extra-base hits and 30 stolen bases (also Honus Wagner, Max Carey and Barry Bonds)...In 2018, Starling produced the longest hitting streak in the league (17 games-tied) and ranked sixth among the N.L. leaders with a .330 batting average with runners in scoring position.

COREY'S CONTRIBUTIONS: In addition to his Gold Glove play in left field, Corey Dickerson finished the season with a .300 batting average; good for eighth among the N.L. leaders...His 55 extra base hits were the most by a Pirates left fielder since Jason Bay recorded 67 in 2006.

GET WELL GREGORY: Despite missing the last three weeks and 20 games of the season, Gregory Polanco led all National League right fielders with 60 extra-base hits and tied Bryce Harper for the most home runs hit from that position (23)... Only Atlanta's Nick Markakis (264) had more total bases among N.L. right fielders than Polanco (228)...Gregory led the Pirates in home runs (23), RBI (81) and OPS (.839) this season.

THE NEW "K ROD": Richard Rodríguez led all National League rookie relief pitchers with 88 strikeouts and was third among all Major League rookie relievers in that department behind Tampa Bay's Ryan Yarbrough (106) and Los Angeles' Noe Ramirez (93)... Rodríguez' 88 strikeouts established a club record for a rookie reliever; righthander Blas Minor had the previous rookie record with 84 Ks 1993.

CLOSING IT OUT: Felipe Vázquez ranked third among the National League leaders with his career-high 37 saves (42 chances)...His 89 strikeouts were the second-most among left-handed relief pitchers in the league behind Milwaukee's Josh Hader (143) and only Colorado's Wade Davis (63) finished more games than Felipe (60)...With 58 career saves in a Pittsburgh uniform, Vázquez will enter the 2019 season ranked ninth on the club's all-time list - first among lefthanders.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE: For the first time in team history, the Pirates did not have a complete game thrown against them (the previous low was one in 2013).

PNC PARK STATUES

HONUS WAGNER

DEDICATED 1955
[FORBES FIELD]

TODAY

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Bucco Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner is just one of three players to accumulate at least 3,000 hits, 600 doubles and 500 stolen bases during his career. The other players are Ty Cobb and Paul Molitor.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

[THREE RIVERS STADIUM]

TODAY

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico—where Roberto first played the game—Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at home plate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Roberto Clemente led the Major Leagues in hits and batting average during the decade of the 60's. In that 10-year span, Clemente recorded 1,877 hits to top the list, 58 ahead of Hank Aaron (1,819), while producing a .328 batting average.

WILLIE STARGELL

DEDICATED 2001

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates toward the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

DID YOU KNOW...

That Willie Stargell is the all-time home run leader in the 131-year history of the Pirates. He hit a total of 475 homers in his 21-year career – all coming in a Bucco uniform. "Pops" led all National League players with 289 home runs hit over the 10-year span from 1968-1977, trailing only Reggie Jackson (312) for the Major League lead.

BILL MAZEROSKI

DEDICATED 2010

As part of the 50th anniversary season of the 1960 World Series Championship, the Pirates announced plans on January 29, 2010, to erect a statue of Hall-of-Fame second baseman Bill Mazeroski.

The 12-foot bronze statue was officially unveiled on September 5, 2010, Mazeroski's birthday, and stands at the end of Mazeroski Way, which is located at the right field entrance to PNC Park. Susan Wagner, who sculpted the Clemente, Stargell and Kiner statues, also produced this likeness of Maz.

Mazeroski remains the only player in Major League Baseball history to hit a game-winning home run in Game 7 of a World Series. His blast off New York's Ralph Terry on October 13, 1960, gave the Bucs a 10-9 victory in the deciding game played at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh.

Elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001, the Pirates retired Mazeroski's uniform #9 in 1987. He was a seven-time All-Star and holds numerous Major League records for second basemen, including most seasons leading the league in assists (nine), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,707).

DID YOU KNOW...

That Bill Mazeroski holds the Major League record for most seasons (eight) leading the league in double plays and the most double plays turned in one season (161 in 1966). "Maz" still remains the only player in MLB history to hit a game-ending home run in Game Seven of the World Series.

GREG BROWN
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Greg Brown is in his 26th year as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Only Bob Prince (28 years), Steve Blass (33 years) and Lanny Frattare (33 years) have called more games than Brown, who has described the action of more than 3,800 games in his career behind the mic.

Known for his outgoing personality and passion for the ballclub, the Emmy award winning broadcaster has made the phrase "Raise The Jolly Roger" synonymous with a Pirates victory and "Clear The Deck, Cannonball Coming" his signature home run call.

Greg's association with the Pirates began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team in 1994, Brown spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association (now International League) as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. He also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for five seasons (1989-93). Also during his time in Buffalo, Greg served as a play-by-play announcer for University of Buffalo basketball on WGR Radio and as a broadcaster for the Empire TV Sports Network.

Brown's dedication for the Pirates extends to his efforts away from the broadcast booth as well. He makes numerous off-season appearances in the community, in addition to his yearly participation in the club's annual caravan and PirateFest event. During the course of the season, Brown teams up with broadcast partner Steve Blass and hosts several pre-game receptions for members of the 65 Roses Club, which is part of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (20).

JOE BLOCK
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Joe Block is in his fourth season of calling Pirates play-by-play action, having joined the TV and radio broadcast teams in 2016.

Though having grown up in and outside Detroit, Block considers making his home in Pittsburgh "a dream," as his grandparents and great-grandparents originally settled in the region, in Wheeling, WV, and Byesville, OH. As a teenager, Block traveled to Pittsburgh on spring break to take in Penguins games at the Igloo.

Block, 41, has called baseball for 16 seasons, previously with the Milwaukee Brewers and in the minor leagues in Billings, MT, Great Falls, MT, Jacksonville, FL, St. Paul, MN, and Charleston, SC. He also broadcast for the Los Angeles Dodgers, New Orleans Hornets, Montreal Expos and for various regional TV networks since graduating from Michigan State in 1999.

He and his wife, Bethany, a nurse practitioner and South Park native, are actively involved in community and charitable endeavors around Pittsburgh and in the South Hills area.

They reside in Bethel Park with daughters Nancy (3) and Mary Claire (1).

STEVE BLASS
COLOR ANALYST

The 2019 season marks Steve Blass' 60th and final year of involvement with the Pirates and his 34th behind the microphone as a color commentator. He has been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960. He announced on January 15 that the 2019 season would be his final one as a broadcaster.

At the conclusion of the 2019 season, Blass will have spent more time behind the microphone than any other broadcaster in Pirates history (34 years). In addition to working the games played at PNC Park, Steve will periodically take a road trip with the team. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV.

A right-handed pitcher, Blass made his professional debut with Kingsport in 1960 and his Major League debut with the Bucs on May 10, 1964. He joined the big league team permanently in 1966 and went on to pitch a total of 10 seasons in the Majors, compiling a 103-76 record, 57 complete games and 16 shutouts in 282 games (231 starts). Steve ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896).

In his third full season in the Majors in 1968, Steve went 18-6, leading the league with a .750 winning percentage while posting a 2.12 ERA, 12 complete games and a career-high seven shutouts. His 2.12 ERA ranked fifth in the N.L. as St. Louis' Bob Gibson led the circuit with a 1.12 ERA.

During a five-year span from 1968 thru 1972, Blass was one of the best pitchers in the National League as he compiled a 78-44 record, 50 complete games and a 3.05 ERA. He won a career-high 19 games in 1972 and was named to the National League All-Star team that season.

1971 World Series

In the 1971 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles, Blass recorded two complete game victories, allowing only seven hits and two runs in 18 innings of work. He finished second in the voting for World Series MVP behind teammate Roberto Clemente and remains the last National League pitcher to throw a complete game in Game Seven of a World Series.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub.

In 1983, he worked with the legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass officially joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

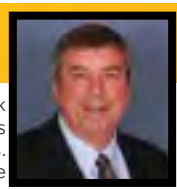

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Pittsburgh. They have two sons, David and Christopher, five grandchildren and one great grandchild. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

It should be noted that on September 10, 2009, Steve defied the astronomical odds and recorded a pair of holes-in-one in the same round of golf. According to Golf Digest, the odds of a golfer making two aces in the same round are one in 67 million.

BOB WALK
COLOR ANALYST

Bob Walk is in his 26th season as a member of the Pirates broadcast crew. He joins Greg Brown as being one of only five men with at least 20 years of service behind the microphone for the Bucs on radio.

The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of his 14 years pitching in the Major Leagues with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (39), Johnny (37) and Ronny (29). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughters Makayla (16) and Kylie (13). Johnny and his wife, Nikki, have two children; son Jake (4) and daughter Ella (2).

PITTSBURGH PIRATES

TEAM HISTORY

Forbes Field, Opening Day 1909

THE EARLY YEARS

Now in their 133rd National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenys brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenys were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenys reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenys defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenys' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirates history, the Hall-of-Fame owner brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

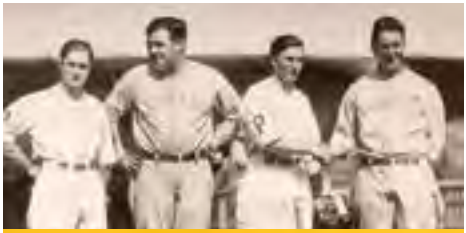

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Americans, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three. In the Series, Phillippe started five of the games.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

THE FORBES FIELD YEARS

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30 that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" — batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd — who was tagged "Little Poison" — hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) — which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 Fall Classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

THE THREE RIVERS YEARS

The changing of the decade also brought along a change to the home ballpark of the Pirates. After playing in cavernous Forbes Field since June 30, 1909, the Bucs began play at a multi-purpose stadium located at the confluence of Pittsburgh's three rivers. The aptly named Three Rivers Stadium played host to its first game on July 16, 1970, with the Pirates losing a 3-2 decision to the Reds.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award.

In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI.
It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

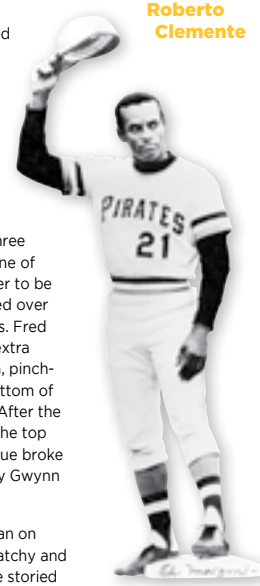

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

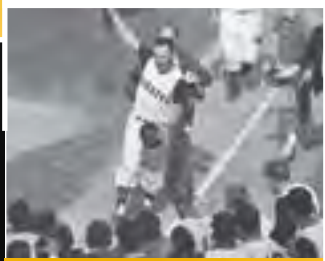

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991.

Roberto Clemente

A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional baseball game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke its six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Three Rivers Stadium

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleague play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 5-3.

While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire 1997 season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the 10th inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

THE PNC PARK YEARS

PNC Park, Opening Day April 9, 2001

PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank seventh in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

For the first time in team history a Pittsburgh player captured Rookie-of-the-Year honors as outfielder Jason Bay took home the honors in 2004. A two-time National League All-Star, Bay was a fan favorite at the 2006 All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

The national spotlight shined once again on the city of Pittsburgh during the 2006 season as the Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the event has been held in the Steel City. The American League won a dramatic 3-2 decision in the Midsummer Classic as the Pirates became the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Also in 2006, Freddy Sanchez added his name to the club's record list of 25 batting champions as his .344 average led the National League. Sanchez banged out 200 hits in 2006 and led the N.L. with 53 doubles while being named to his first of two All-Star teams.

On January 18, 2007, Bob Nutting officially assumed control of the ballclub, thus becoming only the sixth principal owner in the Pirates storied history. Following a deep look into the team's operations, Nutting has built a fundamentally different organization by introducing Frank Coonelly as the team's new president on September 13, 2007 and, in-turn, Neal Huntington as the team's new general manager on September 25, 2007. From there the new leadership team has made significant changes to each of the three major areas – Major League manager/coaching staff, Scouting Director and Farm Director, with the goal of building an organization that can consistently compete.

Since 2009, fans have witnessed the debuts of many first-round draft picks, including Andrew McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Neil Walker, Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon along with appearances of many other young players, including Starling Marte, Gregory Polanco and Josh Bell.

Clint Hurdle was named manager of the Pirates on November 15, 2010, and in his first eight seasons at the helm, the inspirational leader of the club has posted a 666-628-1 record while leading the Bucs to the postseason three times.

During the 2012 campaign, Bucco fans showed their great support of the club as the Pirates played host to 17 sellouts during the season.

McCutchen also emerged as one of the best players in the game, winning a Gold Glove and Silver Slugger award in 2012 while finishing third in the National League MVP voting.

In 2013 the Pirates returned to prominence in the league as they won 94 regular season games and appeared in the postseason for the first time since 1992.

The Pirates placed five players on the 2013 All-Star team - the most since also having five selected to the 1972 Midsummer Classic. Along with McCutchen, Pedro Alvarez, Jason Grilli, Jeff Locke and Mark Melancon represented the Bucs at the 2013 All-Star Game, played at Citi Field in New York.

2013 Wild Card Champions

Led by 16-game winner and the National League Comeback Player-of-the-Year Francisco Liriano, the Bucco pitching staff posted 16 shutouts in 2013 and ranked third in the N.L. with a 3.26 ERA; the best mark by the pitching staff since 1984. Grilli (33) and Melancon (16) picked up 49 of the club-record and National League leading 55 saves.

The offense was led by McCutchen, who took home N.L. MVP honors in 2013 after hitting .317 with 97 runs, 38 doubles, 21 home runs, 84 RBI and 27 stolen bases in 157 games. McCutchen became the sixth player in club history to win the MVP award, joining Dick Groat (1960), Roberto Clemente (1966), Dave Parker (1978), Willie Stargell (1979) and Barry Bonds (1990, 1992).

Silver Slugger award winner Pedro Alvarez shared the league lead in home runs in 2013, as the young slugger smacked 36 long balls to become the first Bucco to lead or share the N.L. lead in homers since Willie Stargell did so with 44 in 1973.

After winning 94 games during the 2013 regular season and finishing second in the N.L. Central division standings, the Pirates defeated the Reds in the Wild Card playoff game, played before a sold out crowd at PNC Park on October 1.

The Pirates had a two-games-to-one lead in the best of five Division Series playoff against the Cardinals, but dropped the final two games to bring an end to their magical 2013 campaign.

The Pirates produced a record 23 sellouts during the 2013 regular season before playing in front of three standing-room only crowds in the postseason.

Clint Hurdle also took home some hardware following the 2013 season as he was named the N.L. Manager-of-the Year; just the second Bucco skipper to win the award.

The Pirates reached the postseason again in 2014 while drawing 2,442,564 fans and averaging 30,155 for their 81 home dates. In addition, the Bucs posted 23 regular season sellouts for the second consecutive year.

With a combination of the second-best OBP in the National League (.333) and a pitching staff that posted the second-lowest ERA (2.94) over the final two months of the season, the Pirates won 88 games in 2014, finishing 2.0 games behind St. Louis in the Central division race.

Josh Harrison finished second in the N.L. batting race while Andrew McCutchen once again put up MVP-type numbers, leading the Pirates to the postseason in back-to-back seasons for just the sixth time in franchise history.

The final game of the 2014 season was played on October 1 as a standing-room only crowd of 40,629 watched eventual World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner shut down the Bucs in the Wild Card Game as the Giants began their run toward the championship.

2015: Single-season attendance record: 2,498,596

For the sixth time in franchise history, and for the first time since 1991, the Pirates won 98 games in a season as the 2015 squad posted a 98-64 record.

The Pirates also established a club-record attendance figure in 2015, drawing 2,498,596 fans and averaging 30,847 fans for their 81 home dates. The Bucs went 53-28 at home, setting a record for most wins in a season at PNC Park.

During the 2015 campaign, Pittsburgh posted its 10,000th franchise win on September 24, becoming the fifth club to record as many victories.

For the third straight year the Pirates hosted the N.L. Wild Card Game in 2015, making the postseason three consecutive years for just the fourth time in team history.

Mark Melancon set a club record and led the Major Leagues with 51 saves in 2015. In addition, Gerrit Cole won 19 games, Starling Marte captured a Gold Glove Award for his fielding excellence and Andrew McCutchen won the 2015 Roberto Clemente Award for his many community endeavors.

The 2017 season saw the emergence of another young talented player as Josh Bell set a National League record for most home runs hit by a switch-hitting rookie (26).

For the 49th time in club history, a Gold Glove award was given to a Pirates player as Corey Dickerson took home the hardware for his outfield excellence in 2018.

Anchored by Jameson Taillon and Trevor Wiliams, the pitching staff ranked third in the Majors with 16 shutouts in 2018 while establishing itself as one of the top staffs in MLB.

Embarking on their 133rd season since joining the National League in 1887, the Pirates continue to establish themselves as one of the top teams in Major League Baseball in recent years.

Since the start of the 2013 season, Pittsburgh's 515-455 (.531) record is the eighth-best in Major League Baseball and the fifth-best in the National League.

1900–1910

The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue witha white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910–1920

The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel (1912). The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button (1913-14). Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1921–1932

Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1938–1939

The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1933–1937

The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red.

1940–1941

The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1940–1944

A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1942–1947

Team adds an arc "Pirates" (home) and "Pittsburgh" (away).

1948

The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P."

1954

The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates."

1957

The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962

Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970

The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms, which they debuted at the first game at the new Three Rivers Stadium in July. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1976

The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977–1979

Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985

The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987

The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990

A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1995

The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1996

That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997

The organization introduces a complete new look by wearing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001

With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005

The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

2007

The club introduces a red, sleeveless jersey to be worn on selected home dates.

2009

The Pirates re-introduce sleeves to their home and road jerseys and added a black alternate jersey. The sleeveless pinstriped jersey are worn on Sundays through the end of 2010.

2013

The club introduces an alternate uniform mustard gold cap which was worn on Sunday home games throughout the season. The pullover style jersey was similar to the one from the early 1970's. The front of the jersey featured black "Pirates" lettering outlined in mustard gold on the chest, as well as the player's number below the lettering on the left hand side of the jersey. The players' names were added to the back of the jerseys to go along with their number, as opposed to the 1970 jerseys that did not feature the names. These jerseys were worn through the end of 2015.

2015

The club introduces camouflage jerseys to be worn on selected home dates.

2016

The Pirates introduce a gold jersey/black pant uniform combination to be worn on Sunday home games. The club also will wear a pill-box style cap with the uniform

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

The Roberto Clemente Award is given annually to the Major League Baseball player who "best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team," as voted on by baseball fans and members of the media. Originally known as the Commissioner's Award, it has been presented by MLB since 1971. In 1973, the award was renamed after Clemente following his death in a plane crash while delivering supplies to victims of the Nicaragua earthquake on 12/31/72. Each year, a panel of baseball dignitaries selects 1 player from 30 nominees, one from each club. Teams choose their nominee during the regular season, and the winner is announced at the World Series.
